Charles Arthur Younkin aka "Charleroi Charley" from Charleroi, PA, was secretary of the Younkin Family Association that organized the Younkin Family Reunion from 1934 through 1941. From 1937 through 1941, Charles published eight (8) issues of the Younkin Family News Bulletin and distributed the bulletins to families across America. Inspired by Charles' publications and the work of the Younkin Family Association, from 1990 to 1996, Donna Christine (Younkin) Logan started new family reunions and published her and Charles' genealogy research findings in 25 new issues of the Younkin Family News Bulletin. In 2004 and 2005, Donna published two (2) more issues titled Junghen Family News Bulletin with the results of genealogy research in the ancestral village of Niederasphe, Hessen, Germany. The news bulletins, widely distributed by U.S. Mail, have a treasure trove of genealogy and history on the Junghen-Younkin family.

Donna, age 55, succumbed to cancer on January 4, 2006. Her husband Larry Logan and her family requested the research findings and bulletins be widely accessible so that future generations of Junghen-Younkin descendants can learn from her work. In 2008-2009, the late Ross Younkin scanned the bulletins into PDF files and made a limited number of compact discs (CD). The Younkin Family Reunion distributed the CDs for several years. By 2017, Mark T. Youngkin could not find a CD or PDF files, and he scanned the news bulletins to new PDF files and posted them to the Internet Archive. In early 2025, Youngkin created a table of contents and index of surnames for each bulletin volume to make genealogy information more accessible for research. Youngkin combined each volume of news bulletins into one PDF file for distribution and archiving with a cover sheet, publication list, table of contents, and index of surnames.

Junghen Family Name History

Submitted by David and Wanda Kline, of Hagerstown, Maryland

[Source: The Historical Research Center®, Inc.]

The German family name Junghen is classified as being of nickname origin. Surnames which are derived from a nickname are said to constitute one of the widest and most varied class of family names. This particular category encompasses many different types of origin. The most obvious are those names which are based on a physical characteristic or personal attribute of the initial bearer. In this particular instance, the surname Junghen is derived from "jung", meaning "young" and "Hen", a pet form of the first name Johannes, a derivative of the Hebrew "yehohanan", meaning "God is gracious". Thus, this name literally means "young Hen" and this name would indicate the younger of two with the same first name. In the Middle Ages, Johannes and its numerous pet forms was one of the most popular given names and not only father and son, but also two brothers, would have born the same name. Variants of the surname Junghen include Junghenne, Junghan(ne), Junghans and Jungen.

One of the earliest references to his name or to a variant is a record of one der Junghe Hans, a butcher, who is listed in documents from Hannover in 1410. Catharine Junghen and Johann Michael Hell were married in Teningen, Freiburg, in 1714 and the wedding of Christiana Luisa Junghen and Gustav Christian Baumann took place in Wolfstein, Pfalz, on June 14, 1767. This name was introduced to America as early as 1737 in which year we find a record of the emigration of Johann Jeremias Junghen¹, who sailed to Pennsylvania. The name could of course have been first introduced to that country at an earlier date. The blazon of arms described below was granted to a family by the name Junghen from Lubeck and it is based on a seal belonging to one Stephan Junghen, who is mentioned in documents from 1411.

Blazon of Arms: Paly of six per fess counterchanged sable and argent

Translation: Sable (black) represents the planet Saturn and denotes Constancy.

Crest: a vol alternating sable and argent

Origin: Germany

¹ This name, Johann Jeremias Junghen, was translated from a ship's passenger list. The translation was later corrected and republished to read 'Johann Herman Junghen'. — DYL

*Martha (Pringey) Younkin
(1806-1898)*

Wife of Dr. Jonas Younkin

Martha is buried in the Beatrice Cemetery in Beatrice, NE, where several of her children settled.

Martha was the daughter of John and Abigail (Rhoades) Pringey. John and Abigail were settlers in the Turkeyfoot area of Somerset County, PA, and are buried in the Jersey Church Cemetery near Ursina. Martha was not the only child of John and Abigail to marry into the Younkin family. Her brother Joseph married Margaret "Peggy" Younkin. And several more generations of descendants also married into our Younkin family. We are still working at a compilation of the descendants of both families.

Ankylosing Spondilitis Is this a hereditary disease?

Roger Yonkin is attempting to discover the rate of incidence in the Junghen family, of the arthritis type known as Ankylosing Spondilitis (also known as, Marie Strumples Disease). If you have any knowledge of a family member who has this arthritis, (onset mostly in males ages 12-14), or know of stories, etc. that indicate an ancestor may have had problems with spine and hips, please contact Roger Yonkin at 26 German Cross Road, Ithaca NY 14850, or ryonkin@lightlink.com.

Items From The Past

The following article appeared in The Washington Democrat, February 19, 1896. [Published in Washington, IA]:

We see by the report of the superintendent of public instruction that since August 1, 1894, four Washington County persons have been granted state certificates to teach school. They are Samuel Younkin, Edith Roberts, Adelaide Twinam, and J. W. Young.

Some Things Never Change

The Ongoing and Sometimes Fractious Saga of the Younkings and Minerds

By Mark A. Miner

John Minerd was hopping mad. A sheep was missing, and he knew who took it. Or so he thought.

Minerd, a Somerset County farmer, was so sure of the crook's identity that he began telling people. (Whether or not it was Minerd's sheep, the record is silent.) And at whom did he point his verbal finger? None other than his very own cousin, John Younkin.

"He stole a sheep," Minerd thundered about Younkin to a group of friends and neighbors, "and I will prove it."

To make his point, Minerd spoke his words not in English but in the tongue that perhaps he knew best — German. Someone listening to Minerd would have actually heard "Er hat ein shoaff gestohlen und ich wol es gut machen."

But Minerd's diatribe wasn't over. Shifting to English, he then amplified his point, saying "He stole a sheep, and I will say so before his face and behind his back as often as he wants to hear it."

And then, perhaps to make sure his message was unequivocally clear, or possibly in reply to someone else's comment, Minerd said, now back in German, "Er beistein dieb." Those in hearing distance knew German and well understood what he meant: "He is a thief."

Serious words.

The year was 1828. Minerd was a headstrong 25-year-old, married to Sarah Ansell, with an infant son. He more or less had his own turf — a portion of a 318-acre Turkeyfoot Township farm that he and his father were renting (and would later buy) from absentee owners in Philadelphia. And he was fluently bilingual.

It's intriguing that Minerd spoke part of his anger in German, because his ancestors had been in America for many generations. In The Planting of Civilization in Western Pennsylvania, the definitive account of 18th and early 19th century life in the region, authors Solon J. and Elizabeth Hawthorn Buck write: "The Germans who pushed west [beyond the Allegheny Mountains] often lost contact with the central body [of Germans east of the Susquehanna River] and more or less rapidly conformed to the life of their neighbors, the English and the Scotch-Irish."

Not so with the ethnic farming communities of Somerset County. They preserved their German culture and heritage by continuing to cook German dishes such as schnitz and knepp, * speak the language of the old country, and marry their neighbors, who often were also their cousins. At least five 19th century weddings are known between the Younkings and Minerds.

On his mother's side, Minerd was in the fifth American generation — grandson of John and Catherine Younkin; great grandson of pioneers John and Catharine Younkin; and great-great-grandson of German immigrants Johann Heinrich Junghen and Catharina Scherer. On his father's side, Minerd was a fourth-generation American, the son of Jacob Minerd Jr. and Catherine Younkin; grandson of Jacob Minerd Sr. and Maria Neün, pioneer settlers of the region; and great-grandson of German immigrants Friedrich Meinert and Eva Maria Weber.

The exact identity of the alleged thief is not clear. The documents simply call him "John Younkin of Jacob." He might have been John J. Younkin, age 50, son of Jacob Younkin and Hannah Nicola. Or he might have been John M. Younkin, age 28, son of Jacob and Eleanor Younkin, and, interestingly, Minerd's future brother in law. Either way, "John Younkin of Jacob" also was a Turkeyfoot Township farmer and, like his accuser, a descendant of German immigrant Johann Heinrich Junghen.

Back to the story. Minerd's German and English words had impact, but got him into trouble. Enough people apparently believed him that they began to shun Younkin. It soon became obvious to Younkin that "divers of [my] neighbours and others ... have withdrawn themselves from [my] company, society and fellowship...." As a "good, true, faithful and honest citizen", Younkin felt he had been "grievously hurt and injured".

So Younkin reacted as any red-blooded American would in the situation. He turned the tables on Minerd. He hired a lawyer and sued his cousin. And Younkin didn't want an apology. He demanded cash. To the tune of $500. A huge sum at the time, reflecting his outrage.

In the slander suit, filed in the Court of Common Pleas of Somerset County, Younkin's attorney Charles Ogle wrote a lengthy and perhaps slightly exaggerated complaint, as lawyers were known to do. Ogle claimed that Minerd uttered his German and English words "contriving and wickedly and maliciously intending not only to deprive [Younkin] ... of his good name, fame, reputation and character ... but also to bring him ... into danger of incurring the pains and penalties of the law enacted against those who are guilty of such offences."

Instead of Younkin facing trial for suspected theft, Minerd was now on the defensive.

The case took two years to resolve. What was said at the trial, and who the witnesses were, and how Minerd defended himself are all lost to history. Court documents only reveal that Minerd was found guilty. But instead of having to fork over the enormous sum that Younkin wanted, Minerd instead paid just a small fraction of the amount.

In a signed statement dated April 6, 1830, Minerd wrote: "I hereby confes judgment in the above suit for ten dollars damages with costs of suit."

Whether or not Younkin actually stole the sheep is unknown. Whether or not Younkin and Minerd ever restored their relationship also is not known.

What is clear, however, is that as neighbors in the cluster of German settlers in rural Somerset County in the 1820s, and notwithstanding the many intermarriages between the Younkins and Minerds, some families weren't always the best of friends.

Sad to say, some things never change.

* A popular treat of cured ham, dried sweet apples, dumplings and milk still enjoyed today by Younkin-Minerd descendants in the Kingwood area.

 The German language was passed down further to at least one more generation of the family. John Minerd's son Henry A. Miner (a Kingwood-area and later Connellsville resident who lived until 1912), nephew Ephraim Miner (a lifelong Kingwood farmer who died in 1921) and niece Martha Gorsuch (of Mill Run, Rockwood and Somerset who lived until 1960) are known to have spoken German at times. Several fascinating questions remain. Do the German words used by Minerd in 1828 contain any dialect consistent with the Hesse region of Germany from whence the Junghens originated? Might the dialect help pinpoint the specific geographic area in Germany from where the Meinerts/Minerds came, a fact unknown at present? Stay tuned.

Mark A. Miner continues to work his genealogical magic on our Younkin-Minerd families and we thank him for his many generous contributions to our precious family history.

Our Letter to German Junghen(n) Families

Below you will find a copy of the letter Roger Yonkin, of Ithaca, NY, and Donna Logan composed and mailed to all families in Germany with the last name Junghen(n) and Junghan(n). We have received several responses from families and are continuing to correspond with them to clarify some details of the family histories they submitted to us. These will be published in a future issue.

Dear Cousin,

For several years, we have worked to gather information regarding our family members in the United States. We have gathered most of the family names in the United States and some information regarding our earliest known ancestors. We publish a family newsletter and hold a family reunion every year. But the one thing missing, is knowledge of our family in Germany and the origin of that family. That is why we are writing to you.

We have always hoped to have time to establish contact with our family in Germany. As far as we know, no one has had contact with our German cousins in more than 100 years. We do not know why there has been this lack of communication but, we hope that this is the year we make contact. You, and a very few other Junghen(n) families we found in Germany, are our only hope. If we receive no response from any of you, we can see no possibility of ever again, having an opportunity to find our German family. Please do us and our German/American families the great service to write, or otherwise contact us. How very important your input will be. Even if you feel you have nothing to contribute, please respond so that we may contact you later.

The following, is a brief history of our family in America. There appears to have been two branches of the Junghen family that emigrated to America in the 18th century. In the early 1700s two brothers, Herman and Heinrich Junghen, immigrated from Germany to the United States and settled in Bucks County, Pennsylvania. We don't know where in Germany they were from.

In the year 1806, another Heinrich Junghen and his Swiss wife, Elizabeth Haines also immigrated to the United States. This family eventually settled near the city of Dushore, Pennsylvania. Family tradition tells us that Heinrich's three brothers may have emigrated the previous year and that Heinrich may have come from the area in or around Kassel, Germany.

By the time the first generation of Junghen children were born in America the families had changed the spelling from Junghen or Junghenn to Younkin, Yonkin, Youngken and Youngkin.

Today in America there are only about 600 families with the last name Younkin or Yonkin. But our family research shows that all of these families are descendants of the previously mentioned emigrees. Now that we accomplished so much work on the Junghen(n) family history here in the United States, we are anxious to find our German family and heritage. We sincerely hope that you will be able to help us with this.

We hope you can guide us in the right direction to begin our German family history research. Is there a particular city in Germany where the Junghen (or Junghan) family was established in these earlier centuries? Are there any family

Kings of Somerset & Fayette Cos, PA

From Janet Felo, 131 Ridge Ave, Freedom, PA 15042.

...I have a question for you and our cousins. I am researching the KING line from Somerset and Fayette Counties in Pennsylvania. I had a great aunt, Frances Rebecca Williams, who married a George Benton King and they lived in Kansas City, Missouri after marriage and had four children. George according to his obituary and death certificate was born in Uniontown, Fayette County, PA on May 17, 1862 and died Nov. 15, 1947 and was survived by a Mrs. Alice Patterson of Uniontown. I am trying to get more information on his family. I thought if you have any members who are doing KING research I might correspond with them. —

Searching for Donald L. Younkin...

Dear Mrs. Logan,

In 1952 I attended the US Army Signal Corps Officer Candidate School (OCS) (Class 13) at Fort Monmouth, NJ with a Donald L. Younkin whose home-of-record then was Reseda, California. I am trying to contact him to inform him of the organization of an Signal Corps OCS association and of planned reunions. In any even, I hope to generate and distribute to our classmates an up-to-date class directory; to date we have found 30 of the 50 graduates.

I understand you publish a Younkin Family Newsletter. Can you help me find my missing classmate. Unfortunately I have no further information about him. Thanks in advance for any help you might give.

Yours Sincerely Harold A. Fleming

Disturbed a Church Festival

Henry Snyder, William Ream, Samuel Pierce, Clark Trump, James Younkin, John Younkin, Filmore Younkin and Bert Younkin, all of White Rock, were held for court by Justice of the Peace Crawford Stillwagon Saturday on a charge of disorderly conduct and disturbing a church festival held at the Methodist Protestant church in White Rock on February 28th.

I am not sure, but it may be that these boys might be the sons of Eli Younkin and his first wife Elizabeth Addis and second wife Mary Ellen Garlitz and grandsons of Jacob H. "Devil Jake" and Sarah (Tannehill) Younkin. If so they were young boys at the time of this event. — Donna Younkin Logan

MOUNTAIN MATTERS

The School Board met yesterday and Alex Kooser and Dayton Younkin, the new members, were sworn in. The retiring members are Jno. Shobert and Freeman McMillen. An organization was elected by electing the following officers for the year: President, Geo. W. Showman; Secretary, Dan Hensil; Treasurer, Daniel Steyer. No disposition has been made of house no. 2, but it will likely be sold Saturday when the board meets again.

MOUNTAIN MATTERS

A few days ago some people were quarrying limestone on the Hyatt farm in Springfield township. Two blasts were to be put off at once and all hands were notified. Osborne and Charles Younkin went down along the pike and when about 150 yards away they met Arabella, the daughter of J. D. Mountain, driving in the direction of the quarry. No warning was given the girl and when opposite the quarry both blasts were discharged. The horse was badly scared and a stone fell so near the animal that it was almost frantic. Miss Mountain had a narrow escape and her father thinks it was small business on the part of the Younkins not to give her warning.

MOUNTAIN MATTERS

It seems that the article in this paper relating to the failure of the Younkin boys to notify Miss Mountain of a blast along the road, when that young lady was approaching in a buggy, and also the article relating to the politics of A. E. Harbaugh, have caused much discussion in the mountain region about Springfield, and The Courier correspondent has been made the subject of some hot words. The truth of the matter is that the material for both items was furnished to The Courier and written in this office, and the Springfield correspondent had nothing to do with their insertion or the foundation for their publication.

The boys mentioned in the article dated November 17th, and 30th, 1899, I believe are the sons of William Dayton and Lucinda (Harbaugh) Younkin. They were teenagers at the time this alleged event took place.

Whispers of the 'Silence and Slow Time'

The Younkings and Minerds, Part IV

By Mark A. Miner

Librarian of Congress James Billington likes to quote the poet John Keats who once wrote of "silence and slow time" — what Billington calls "the lost world of biblical time, in which most Americans lived their lives in the past century."

One of the empty feelings of family research is knowing that the full lives of many Younkings of long ago are virtually forgotten. Younkings of the 1800s lived and worked for scores of years, but their words, personalities, labors, looks, triumphs and tears are all but silenced by the passage of time and the dimming of memory. This article tries to reconstruct the whispers of the lost story of one couple — John M. Younkin and Laura Minerd.

John and Laura were first cousins, and their marriage was among at least 10 in the 19th century between the interlinked Younkings and Minerds of Somerset County, Pa. (Some of these marriages have been profiled in earlier issues of the Younkin Family News Bulletin.) In this case, the bride and groom both were grandchildren of John and Catherine Younkin. Though difficult to understand today, cousin marriages of the era were socially prized as a way to ensure that like-minded couples with similar cultural values and heritage stayed together.

John was born in Lower Turkeyfoot Twp. in 1803, a son of Jacob "of John" and Eleanor Younkin. Because many Younkin cousins were named John, he often went by "Lowry John," a slang version of his wife's name. Laura was born in 1813, a daughter of Jacob and Catherine (Younkin) Minerd Jr. She grew up on a 500-acre farm at Hexebarger, near what is now the Old Bethel Church.

John and Laura married in the early 1830s. They spent their adult years in the Turkeyfoot region, working and raising their family of 10 children. He was a farm laborer but never owned land of his own. In addition to her role as a wife, mother and housekeeper, she was a "spinster," a 19th century term for a seamstress. As well, they helped raise their young granddaughter Harriet C. Younkin after the girl's mother died. Occasionally John attended community events such as estate auctions of deceased relatives and friends. In February 1852 he bought "1 Lot of Bees" at the auction of the late Michael Ansell, suggesting that both men made honey.

One of John and Laura's daughters died young. In later years, they suffered the deaths of two adult sons, one in war and the other of a yet unknown cause.

Neither John nor Laura could write; when they signed documents in 1843 and 1851 relinquishing legal claims to their respective parents' lands, they marked their names with an "X." The latter transaction led to litigation — in March 1851, John and his siblings sold their late father's 159-acre farm (on the hill between Coke Oven Hollow and Smith Hollow) to Solomon Baldwin. Five years later, a dispute arose after Baldwin only paid part of the purchase price, claiming that 5 of the acres had no title and that the defective tract (containing "a road to the house") caused "injury to the farm." A panel of arbitrators heard the case and awarded John $100 in damages.

Laura died sometime before 1880, and her burial site is unknown. John then moved in with son Charles at Casselman, Pa. His death date is not recorded, but he is said to be buried in an unmarked grave at the Lutheran Cemetery in Kingwood. In death, the couple largely faded from memory, but not entirely. They were briefly mentioned in the 1906 volume, History of Bedford and Somerset Counties. As well, some of their descendants attended the first annual Minerd Reunion in August 1913 at Ohiopyle, Pa., and heard John and Laura's names in a speech by Minerd cousin Allen Edward Harbaugh. They were remembered again in October 1934, when Otto Roosevelt Younkin, a distant cousin and genealogist, interviewed one of their elderly sons for a research project in connection with the newly-started Younkin Reunion.

The 10 children of John and Laura Younkin included:

Catherine Younkin (1833 - ?) was a "domestic," lived with her parents as an adult and never married. Censuses, the 1906 history and Otto Younkin's notes provide the only scant clues of her existence.

Eli Younkin (1836-1912) was born and reared in Lower Turkeyfoot Twp. He married Mary Ann Rose, and they had three daughters, Christina, Amanda and Harriet C. During the Civil War they moved to Illinois, perhaps after the birth of their youngest daughter. Mary Ann died shortly afterward, in 1865, and was buried in Franklin Grove, ILL. Her 29-year old widower soon returned to Kingwood and in 1869 married Sarah Lichtler. Little of their adult years is known, except that they lived in Smith Hollow south of Kingwood between Humbert Road and what is now Route 281. Sarah died on March 8, 1912, and Eli died of a lung abscess just 10 days later. Both are buried at the Kingwood Cemetery, and their headstone has been a site on the Younkin Reunion tours of the 1990s. Amanda married William Wallace Hechler; Harriet married Benjamin Romesburg and Elijah Turney; and Christina married John Wesley Nedrow.

Son in law Romesburg was killed in 1901 when a stone hurled by an explosion crushed his skull during excavation for the Ursina Coal and Coke Company store. Amanda Hechler was a member of the 1st organized adult Bible class of the Kingwood Church of God, where she was a 40-year member, and a certificate with her name (among others) hangs in the church today. The Nedrows moved to Maitland, Mo., in the 1880s.

William Shedrick Younkin (1838-1923) was nicknamed "Shed." He married Caroline Cupp, and they lived in Black Twp. before moving to a 122-acre farm near Rockwood. When one of their daughters gave birth out of wedlock, Shed signed a legal agreement to keep and maintain the boy at his own expense. Later in life, Shed suffered the deaths of 2 married daughters, Edith and Elizabeth. He is thought to have attended the 1st annual Minerd Reunion in 1913 at Ohiopyle. In August 1923, he had a stroke and died a week later. Among the assets at his death were shares of stock of Economy Telephone Co. Caroline died a year later, and both are buried at Rhoads Cemetery near Rockwood. Their children were Levi "Grant" Younkin; Ella Elizabeth, wife of Jonathan Edward Hauger; Thomas Wilbert Younkin; Missouri, wife of George E. Wingard; Edith, wife of George Miller; Elizabeth Wable; and Susan Younkin. The Haugers operated a grocery store in Rockwood for many years near the Western Maryland Railroad depot. Great-grandson 2nd Lt. Louis E. Younkin was killed in World War II, and his name is etched on a war memorial in the Rockwood IOOF Cemetery.

Jacob M. Younkin (1840-1863) was killed in the Civil War as a private with the 85th Pennsylvania Infantry. (YFNB, July 1993) Prior to the war, he married Mary Jane Christner and had a son J. Harvey. Jacob enlisted in November 1861 and drilled at Uniontown, Pa. While drunk there one night he married a 2nd woman just before leaving town. Six months later, on May 31, 1862, while defending against a Confederate attack at the Battle of Seven Pines/Fair Oaks, near Richmond, he was killed in action, and buried in an unmarked grave. Following his death, both widows stepped forward to claim his pension. It took years for the government to sort out which wife was which. After 7 years, Mary Jane was finally proven the true spouse, though by then she had died after remarrying Daniel K. Grim and having had 5 more children. With his mother's remarriage, Harvey became solely eligible for the pension, and a local postmaster was assigned as his guardian. Harvey lived in Pennsville and Dawson, and attended the Soldiers Orphans School in Uniontown. As an adult, he taught music and school in Connellsville and Uniontown, and sold organs and pianos. A teller of tall tales, he had a life of misadventures and scrapes with the law that generated lively news coverage. He died — unmarried — in 1931 at the age of 71, and is buried in Connellsville, Pa.

Charles Younkin (1845-1921) married Sarah Artest and adopted a son, Alfred Arthur Younkin, known as "Alf" or "A.A.". They lived in Casselman, Pa., where Charles was a railroad laborer and coal miner. Sarah died of stomach cancer in 1906 and is buried in an unmarked grave at the Mt. Union Cemetery. A.A. played trombone in the Casselman Cornet Band, is pictured in the recently published book, Down the Road of Our Past, and is said to have taught locally. In 1914, Charles and A.A. moved to Wenatchee, Wash., where Charles got work as a coal miner. A.A. eventually founded an apple sorting and packing business with his wife Lillian that remained in family ownership until the late 1970s. Charles died in 1921 and is buried in the Wenatchee Cemetery. A.A. often sent crates of apples at Christmas to his cousins in Pennsylvania. A.A.'s granddaughter Diana Egan, interested in preserving the family's heritage, organized the 1996 Younkin Reunion-West in Turner, Ore., drawing 50 people and establishing a committee and fund for future events. Diana's account of the reunion is on the World Wide Web at www.intrepid.net/~fanfare/reunion.html.

Josiah Younkin (1848-1876?) is nearly silent in the historical record. His wife Rachel's story is much better known and colorful — married at age 19; a Civil War widow and single mother at 21; ultimately to have 6 children by 3 husbands and a significant other. Her full name was Rachel (Phillippi) Gearhard-Younkin-Wilkins, and by today's standards she would be called a survivor. Her 1st husband, Samuel Gearhard, of the 142nd Pennsylvania Infantry, was captured at the Battle of the Wilderness and died at the notorious Andersonville Prison. The government awarded Rachel a pension of $8 per month. She remained a widow until 1869, when she married Josiah Younkin. The remarriage caused her to forfeit the pension but it became solely payable to her daughter Alice. Rachel and Josiah lived near Casselman, Pa., and had 2 daughters of their own — Mary Agnes, born in 1870, and Minnie Elizabeth, born in 1872. Then, sometime before July 3, 1876, Josiah died of causes not known. The loss left Rachel a 2-time widow at age 33. His passing also left her with a large unpaid bill for goods purchased from the firm of Weimer & Walter, leading to a lawsuit. She lost the case and had to pay $21.28 plus court costs. That same year, Rachel signed a note promising to pay daughter Alice the sum of $400, perhaps as accrued pension funds. The signature of "Rachel Younkin" on the note, filed at the Somerset County courthouse, is a rare example of her handwriting and name as a Younkin. By 1880, she had become a companion of Jack Hobson and then by 1885 had married John Wilkins. Wilkins eventually died in a housefire, and his body was never recovered. After being widowed a 3rd time, and then enduring the death of daughter Mary Agnes in 1910, she moved to the home of daughter Minnie in Deerfield, Ohio, where she died in 1915 at age 72. Her remains were brought back to Casselman for burial at Mt. Union Cemetery. Mary Agnes married James Crabtree and lived near Donegal, Pa. Minnie Elizabeth married James A. Rhodes and lived in Hardy, Neb., before settling in Portage Co., Ohio in about 1910. The Rhodes' daughter Lillian married A.A. Younkin, went to Washington State with her in-laws and worked as an apple packer and sorter in the family business for some 60 years.

Daniel Martin Younkin (1853-1935) was born in Upper Turkeyfoot Twp. and left school at age 14 to work for the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad. Two years later, he moved to Mt. Pleasant, Pa., to help make boats, and stayed for 14 years. After returning to Rockwood, he rejoined the B&O, working as a car knocker and track section foreman until retirement. Married twice, his 1st wife was Elmira Miranda Zimmerman, and his 2nd wife was Susan Swick. His children to Elmira were Catherine L. Younkin; Sarah 'Gertrude,' wife of John Martin Weaver; Mary Eliza Younkin; John William 'Emory' Younkin; Malzena, wife of Harry Shaffer; Lulu Malinda Younkin; and Georgia 'Missouri,' wife of Ira Clinton Shumaker. Daniel's only child to Susan was Alice, wife of Silas J. Gary. Daniel was "highly respected in the community," profiled in the 1906 Somerset County history and mentioned in the 1957 booklet Rockwood Centennial. In October 1934, just 4 months before his death, he was interviewed by cousin Otto Younkin, providing valuable genealogy insights that otherwise would have been lost. Daniel and both wives are buried at the Rockwood IOOF Cemetery. Son in law Weaver, a coal train crewmember, was killed in 1927 by a moving locomotive at Salisbury Junction near Meyersdale, Pa. Son Emory attended the 1913 Miner's Reunion with his wife Mary and daughters Georgia and Gertrude. Emory worked for the B&O for 49 years despite losing a leg in a train accident, was on the crew that built the Sand Patch Tunnel southeast of Meyersdale, and his retirement in 1947 was headline news in the Somerset County Leader.

Josephine Moan (1857 - ?) married Michael Moan, apparently a Canadian. She lived in Dunbar, Pa., and had a daughter Annie. By 1880 the daughter was residing in Casselman with her uncle and aunt, Charles and Sarah (Artest) Younkin. The Moans' fates are unknown.

Mary Caton-Davis (? - ?) is recorded only in Otto Younkin's notes. She lived in Dunbar, Pa., and was married twice, 1st to a man named Caton, and 2nd to Ed Davis. Nothing else is known.

Millie/Nellie Younkin (? - ?) The only records of her existence — the 1906 history and Otto Younkin's notes — state that she died young.

For more information on the multiple Younkin/Miner connections, see the October 1992, July 1991 and April 1990 issues of the YFNB.

Family History by Ruth Leuthardt

RR #1 Monroe City, IN 47557; (812) 743-2436

Dear Donna,

... Enclosed please find pictures of Grandma and Grandpa Hannah and John Henry Jr. John is a brother to Nancy Henry. Enclosed is a letter by Ruth Helen Henry, a school teacher:

"Great grandfather and grandmother John Henry came from England to America and settled in Somerset County in the town of Scullton. They at one time practically owned all the land of Scullton. He gave each of his children farms. (It was necessary to clear all this land as it was a wilderness).

"Children of John Henry — Thomas, Daniel, Jonathan, David, William, Jacob, John (youngest), Fannie and Margaret. Daniel and Johnathan, are some where in the west, whereabouts unknown (at that time).

"My grandfather Thomas Henry was born Nov. 14, 1830 and died Feb. 21st 1912 at Scullton. He was a member of Co. K 88th Regiment. He was not a volunteer. He was drafted. He was twice married. His first wife (my grandmother) was Catherine Miller. To this union eight children were born. Amanda Bitner is only survivor (1949 being 83 years old) since passed away.

"His second wife was Eliza Stout who died Oct. 28th 1921. To this union eight children were born. Those who survive are Andrew J. Henry (90 June 1961), Lucinda McGuire (died Feb 1962) and Ira D. Henry (78). My aunt Sophia Matthews died Dec. 29th 1924. Buried in Cleveland Dec. 31st, Aunt Mary Bittner died before Aunt Sophia. My father William Henry died Jan. 16th 1939 - born May 26th 1855 - 84 yrs 8 mo 10 da. Susannah Shelley died Nov. 17th 1945 - born 1858, age 87 yrs

"My grandmother Henry was a Miller, daughter of Jacob Miller. Uncle Andrew died Feb. 12th 1962, in June 1961 he was 90 yrs old."

I can't prove all is correct. Thomas Henry married Catherine Miller a sister to Hannah Henry's first husband Michael Miller, Jonas Gary married Joanna Miller, also a sister, Mary Gary married Abraham Miller, a brother. So you see these people married many times in families. In closing I am also sending the papers on Rebecca Gary Henry Schmuck. I am wondering which HENRY Rebecca married.

I am also looking for information on Margaret Henry who married John Gary? Sincerely yours, Ruth Leuthardt

Renowned Alzheimer's researcher joins Mayo

Dr. Steven Younkin, nationally known for his work to find a treatment for Alzheimer's disease, joined Mayo Clinic Jacksonville's Department of Research May 1 [1995].

Younkin works with Dr. Elliott Richelson, director for Research since the clinic began laboratory studies in 1989, and two other investigators. Richelson propelled the Alzheimer's research program from a small operation in temporary trailers to a state-of-the-art laboratory with 35 scientists and support staff. The program is housed in the four-story Birdsall Medical Research Building.

Younkin brings with him eight researchers from his lab at Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine in Cleveland. He will succeed Richelson as director for Research Oct. 1.

The pathologist and pharmacologist is known worldwide for his study of the role amyloid beta protein plays in the development of Alzheimer's. Younkin's research has shown that amyloid deposits are key early events in the disease. Researchers are looking for drugs to turn off production of the protein that forms amyloid.

"If we could find a drug," Richelson says, "we might slow, stop or reverse this disease, which robs the brain of its memory, judgment and personality."

"I can't tell you how much ground we've covered in the last 10 years," Younkin says. "It's extraordinary but it's frustrating. There's so much that needs to be done. There are great opportunities here."

Younkin earned a doctorate in pharmacology and a medical degree from the University of Pennsylvania. He joined Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine as a professor of pharmacology in 1978 and later also was appointed professor of pathology.

The national Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders Association has given Younkin its highest honor, the Zenith Award, and the Society for Neuroscience named him one of four "Current Figures in Alzheimer's Disease Research" in 1994. In 1995, he was one of three scientists in the world to receive the American Academy of Neurology's top prize for his work in Alzheimer's.

Dr. Younkin is married to Linda Elizabeth Harrington and they are the parents of Sarah Christine Younkin, Samuel Guy Younkin, and Curtis Steven Younkin.

Another article regarding his research

Janet Felo, of Freedom, PA, sent this article titled "Alzheimer clues confound researchers" by Delthia Ricks, Orlando Sentinel, which appeared in her local newspaper near Freedom:

Every so often in a disease as complicated as Alzheimer's, there come hints of things so confounding that even the researchers producing the clues are astonished by what they've found. Could it be that some people are naturally protected against the incurable brain disorder while others acquire protection from something as simple as aspirin?

Some lifelong smokers who have maintained the habit into old age (and remain fortunate enough not to die of lung cancer), have surprisingly low rates of Alzheimer's disease, scientists say. The low incidence rates also appear to be true for people who take particularly high doses of aspirin and related medications.

Dr. Jack Riggs of the Department of Neurology at the West Virginia Health Sciences Center suggests that it's probably not anything in cigarettes that's saving some old smokers, but a way in which their genes respond to assaults that renders them "immune" to the disease. In a recent issue of the British medical journal The Lancet, Riggs said such smokers apparently have superior DNA-repair mechanisms. When their genetic material is damaged by the myriad chemicals in cigarettes, their bodies effectively mend the breaks.

By logical extension, other types of DNA damage, such as that caused by Alzheimer's disease, probably also undergo a quick repair, Riggs and his team say.

But what is it about the class of drugs known as anti-inflammatory agents, which includes aspirin, that seems to have a protective effect against the degenerative disorder?

"No one really knows," Dr. Steven Younkin, a professor of neuroscience at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, said. Mostly anecdotal evidence, Younkin said, links low rates of Alzheimer's to higher-than-usual aspirin intake.

Ralph and Martha Younkin Celebrate 50 years together

Ralph and Martha Younkin

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Younkin, Somerset, PA, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary recently.

Mrs. Younkin, the former Martha E. Coddington, was born in Rockwood. She is the daughter of the late Milton and Mary Ann (Warsing) Coddington. Ralph was born in Milford Township. He is the son of the late Charles E. and Lavenia (Dumbauld) Younkin.

They were married in Cumberland, MD., by the Rev. Baughman at the parsonage. They first lived as newlyweds in Milford Township, where they still reside.

They are members of the New Centerville Church of God. Ralph worked for C. W. Dillion in Calumet as a lumberman and for Pa. Department of Highway and for the Crane Co. in Somerset. He and his wife are both retired.

They are the parents of two boys: Ralph E. Younkin of Somerset and David R. Younkin, married to Vicki Marie (Henley) Younkin, Winchindon, MA. They have three grandsons. The anniversary was celebrated on April 23 with a surprise brunch buffet at Oakhurst Tea Room.

Ralph enjoys gardening and his wife enjoys baking and sewing.

Youngken authors African Americans in Newport

Scholars have recently paid increased attention to the big picture in African-American history, but there is still much unexplored material in communities around the country. African Americans in Newport, an illustrated history published by the Rhode Island Historical Preservation and Heritage Commission and the Rhode Island Black Heritage Society, fills in the many gaps of the picturesque port community's history. The book, by Richard C. Youngken, traces the city's black heritage from 1700 until the close of World War II. Youngken supplements his historical narrative with a list of historic resources and with concise word portraits of representative individuals, beginning with Arthur Flagg (1739-1816), a ropemaker, a judge, and an official of the African Union Society. Apparently all that is known about Pompey Brenton, however, is contained on his burial stone in Newport's Common Burying Ground. At first glance the stone appears to be incised with routine funereal art of the kind to be found on eighteenth-century tombstones throughout New England. But a closer look reveals the stone's angelic representation of Brenton, who died in 1772, to have African features.

Questionnaire (separate sheet)

This is one of the responses we've received:

My investigations for the roots of our family in Gemuenden, I found that the clan came from Frankenberg to Gemuenden. In 1653 the baker Johannes Jungehen, son of the baker Daniel Jungehen, married a wife from Gemuenden and decided to life with here in Gemuenden. In 1662 his brother, the tailor Johan Conrad followed him. He also married a wife from Gemuenden. Further investigations lead to the conclusion, that at least seven families named "Jungehen" lived in Frankenberg. These families were closely related.

1630 the tanners guild register, residing in an own guild house in Frankenberg, notes a tanner named Jungehen (no first name mentioned). He lived in the "Walkegraben" where the pelts were soaked and kneaded ("walken" = "to knead"). From other sources it is not unlikely that this tanner was named "Hermanus" who died at the 12. August 1653. Further members of the clan were:

- Johannes Jungehen senior, locksmith and Ursula, his wife.

- Daniel Junghenn, baker, likely to be a brother of Johannes.

- Johannes Jungehen junior, shoemaker, likely to be the son of the locksmith, - Andreas, baker, a son of Daniel, his wives maiden name was "Engel".

- Johan Conrad, a brother of Andreas, tailor, neither profession nor marital status are mentioned. He is likely to be the tailor that moved to Gemuenden in 1662.

- Herman, married with Elisabeth, only called "citizen", probably because he was the only "Herman". He had two sons ("Hermanus" and "Christeanus").

- The last to mention is a "Johannes Jungehen" a miller living on the mill in Roeddenau. A descendant of this name fought in 1747-48 in the later US as an Hessian soldier.

Around 1680 the last Jungehen mentioned in den parish registers of Frankenberg is a "Johannes". It appears that he had no (adult) sons but only daughters so that the name became extinct in Frankenberg while it continued to exist in Gemuenden and Allendorf/Eder.

The above mentioned state of the parish registers (missing or illegible pages, first names mentioned or not, the handwriting of the different priests and so on) makes it difficult to get more precise informations, but it is remarkable the all mentioned persons are designated as "citizen", designated as somehow privileged persons. This and the fact that so many different trades could be found in the clan makes it likely that the Jungehens lived in Frankenberg for a long time. This because it was expensive to buy the citizenship of such an old and respected city like Frankenberg was in this period and because it needed more than just money that skip the borders of the guilds like the Jungehens did.

Frankenberg was founded in 520 as fortress of the "Franken" against the "Sachsen". It was promoted to a city by Carolus Magnus around 950. Newcomers had to buy the citizenship, which was expensive because Frankenberg was a very attractive point of trade with best connections to the south of Germany and the Switzerlands. E.g. around 1240 a man named Wigand Beseler, a wealthy trader from Basel, was "Schultheis" the major of Frankenberg.

The name changed from "Jungehen" around 1650 to "Junghen" in 1700 and finally to "Junghenn" around 1780.

In Frankfurt/Main you can find two Junghenn clans. While one is descended from our clan in Gemuenden, the other comes from the region of "Donaueschingen" in the southern Black Forrest. Also the Junghenns in Kassel is descended from our clan in Gemuenden. The oldest mentioning of the name "Jungehen" in our region we found is dated 1493 in Marburg. A "N. Jungehen" married a wife named "Berta" or "Bechta Roemer". He was a trader, because an invoice from him to Ludwig von Sachsen for oats has remained. The "N" might probably be an abbreviation of "Nikolaus" as this name is mentioned again later.

As our surname is quite rare and mostly comes from the region of Frankenberg, and because Kassel was the capital city of the principality of "Kur-Hessen", the northern part of today's Hassia, it is not unlikely that Roger's ancestors came from Frankenberg.

Junghen Family Reunion 2003

Well, it's been an incredible year for us. First of all the reunion was fabulous as always. We had over 100 cousins in attendance and many from quite a distance!

The 2004 reunion will be held on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 23, 24, and 25, 2004. Plan early! To make reservations at the Ramada Inn in Somerset, please call the hotel directly and tell them you are reserving a room for the Younkin Family Reunion to obtain the reunion rates. The Ramada phone number is: 814-443-4646. The committee is still working on plans but I wanted to get this flyer out so this will also serve as your 2004 Reunion Notice.

We hope you will be able to join us in 2004!

Junghen Family History

I came to the reunion this year with a big surprise for everyone. We now have our family back to a small town in Germany!

Everyone who attended the reunion received a "collectible" personalized button this year with a picture of an old church on it. Friday and Saturday the cousins came up to me as asked "what's this a picture of?" — I'd answer "oh, it's just an old church, isn't it beautiful." And they'd walk away looking at it strangely. They didn't have to wait too long for the real explanation. In the middle of our picnic Saturday I made our big surprise announcement. The picture on the button was, in fact, a photograph of the church where Johann Henrich Junghen was baptized on January 31, 1717. [Do you have goosebumps yet? - I still do!]

As most of you know to cut back on expenses we now only send reunion notices to cousins who have attended a reunion in the past 3 years or have sent a SASE (self-addressed-stamped-envelope) or a small donation. Please mail to Kay Lynn at the address below if you would like to receive the 2005 Reunion Notice.

Junghen Family History

But let's go back in history a bit . . .

Quite some years ago our good friend Klaus Medeke helped Roger Yonkin and I send a mailing to all of the Junghen(n) families in Germany. We let them know what we had been doing with regard to research on the Junghen families in America and now would like to find their roots in Germany. Though we did not receive too many responses we did hear from a few of the Junghenn families that currently live in Germany and other areas of the world as well.

One very special response came from a family that lived near Munich in Bavaria, Hans-Wilhelm and his wife Elisabeth Junghenn, and their son Norbert Junghenn. It seems that Hans-Wilhelm had been doing research on the Junghenn families in Germany for some years. He had not, as yet, found any information that could definitely be tied to our American line.

To make a long story short, on November 25, 2002, I received an email from Hans-Wilhelm that he had just found a baptism record for our Johann Henrich Junghen at the Evangelical Lutheran church in Niederasphe, Hesse,

Henrich Junghen Baptism Record

Henrich's baptism record from the church books at Evangelisch-lutherische Kirche (Evangelical Lutheran Church) Niederasphe, Germany. His entry is the third one down. The record shows Johann Henrich baptized January 31, 1717. His father is named Johannes Junghen. His godfather is his father's brother in law Herman, who lived "über dem Bach" (beyond the creek). This was a perfect match to his tombstone record!

Henrich Junghen Confirmation Record

This is a copy of the confirmation record for Henrich Junghen in 1730. His name is the first listing on the left hand column.

Germany. This is in a small, rural town, about 1,000 people, in Hesse. You can imagine how elated I was after all these years!

Hans-Wilhelm was so kind to send me photographs from his trip to Niederasphe and I was able to make enlargements and take them to the reunion this year for all to share in the joy!

Early in 2003, I contacted the current minister for the church, Rev. Holger Siebert, and he helped us by sending photographs of the church and digital copies of the documents that pertain to our line. He even found a new and unexpected one, Henrich's confirmation record which took place in 1730.

After retuning home from the reunion I got on the phone to cousins Diana and Roger Russell in Napa California and asked, "How would you like to go to Germany?!" Diana didn't skip a beat . . . "When do we leave?" was her reply. I have never planned so quickly for a trip in my life and I am sure Diana, Roger and 9-year-old daughter Kenzie hadn't either! We boarded plans on September 15th and arrived in Frankfort the next morning. We were welcomed to Germany at the airport (at 7:30 am!) by cousin Hans-Wilhelm and Elisabeth along with their wire-haired terrier "Fritz". And off we went on our family history trip! It was an exciting and rewarding 14 days.

We spent most of the first week in Frankenberg which is about 10 miles NE of our home town of Niederasphe. Hans-Wilhelm and Elisabeth took us on a tour each day to the areas where our family had lived. We stayed out of the tourist areas/attractions during this first week and thoroughly enjoyed the warm, hometown atmosphere we encountered everywhere!

Hans-Wilhelm and Elisabeth's grandson, Heinrich Junghenn and his mother, Paulina, wife of their son Norbert, at Oktoberfest in Munich where we spent a day.

Diana and Kenzie in front of the historic Marburg Archive

We spent a full day at the Church in Niederasphe. Rev. Siebert and his wife treated us to a complete tour of the town, church, grounds and parsonage and served us a delightful lunch. And we spent another full day at the Archive at Marburg viewing and taking pictures of historic documents of our family.

Hans-Wilhelm and Elisabeth in front of the "Rat House" (translates to Town Hall!) in Frankenberg.

The top map shows Niederasphe in relationship to some other larger towns in this area of Germany.

The middle map shows it in relationship to the closest larger town Münchhausen. A little farther northeast is the town of Frankenberg.

This bottom map dates back to the early 1700s and is from the David Rumsey Map Collection. You can see Munchansen to the center right (today spelled Münchhausen) and just to the left of it is "Ob Asphe Nid" meaning Upper Asphe and Lower Asphe (very loosely translated!). This is the location of what is today called Niederasphe. The town lies on a small stream called Asphe.

You will recall in Vol. 6 #3 of the Younklin Family News Bulletin that we published the advertisement Henrich put in the Philadelphia Germantown newspaper offering to take letters back to Germany when he returned there in 1751.

The Advertisement read:

1 Oct 1751 — Johann Henrich Junghenn, ein lediger Mensch in Dinneckum, macht bekant dass er willens ist nach Deutschland zu reisen, uber Siegen ins Hessenland biss Nieder Aas...."

Here he says he will be travelling via Siegen to Hesse and Nieder Aas.

More Church Records

Based on all the new records that we have, we can now identify some of our ancestral line. But I do want to emphasize that more work will still need to be done on these records.

Our Johan Henrich was the son of Johan Junghen and his wife Elisabeth Wagner, daughter of Herman Wagner.

The church book entry for the marriage of Johan Junghen and Elisabeth Wagner reads:

1.23.1694 Johannes Junghen and Elisabeth Wagner, Herman Wagners Tochter

Translation:

23 January 1694 Johannes Junghen and Elisabeth Wagner, Herman Wagners daughter

Following are the Neiderasphe church book records for baptisms of children of Johan Junghen. [I am told that the baptism normally happened on the day of birth in those days]:

Date, child, father, sponsor/godfather

3.25.1696 - Johan Henrich, Johan Junghen, Henrich Fuhr

10.13.1700 - Johannes, Johan Junghen, Joh. in the aldern

7.15.1703 - Elisabeth, Johan Junghen, Joh. Wagners daughter

9.9.1706 - Johan Herman, Johan Junghen, Joh. Doffts son Herman

6.12.1709 - Johannes, Johan Junghen, Johannes Dersch

9.4.1712 - Johan Herman, Johan Junghen, Herman Wagner

7.14.1715 - Elisabeth, Johan Junghen, Joh. Aldern daughter

1.31.1717 - Johan Henrich, Johan Junghen, Herman beyond creek

Other records from Hans-Wilhelm's research show the oldest known ancestor of the Junghen family in Neiderasphe was one Herman Junghen born about 1530 died in the summer 1603, and he was a farmer. He had two daughters and two sons. One son, Volpert or Vollbrecht is Hans-Wilhelm's line in Frankenberg. The other Weigand or Wiegand is probably our line in Neiderasphe and a neighboring village Simtshausen (less than 1 mile from Neiderasphe).

We have recently added a new Junghen Family Community Bulletin Board for the exchange of information — a place for our new cousins to post their family questions and answers.

I sincerely hope you will take a few minutes to explore the family web site. Over the next few months we will be adding biographical materials on each of the sons of the immigrant ancestors. If you can add any details to their lives I hope you will write or email me at:

Scientific Genetics

We have added a new aspect to the family research which I am very excited about! Genealogy by Genetics! I am sure most of you have heard about the breakthroughs that have been made in recent years on DNA studies.

My father (he gave me permission to announce this as he's so supportive of our efforts) has participated in the DNA study and his 25 marker DNA test results are posted to the web site. But one set of markers does not a study make! We REALLY NEED more participation by the cousins! Ideally we should have several participants on each line of descendants of the immigrant(s). (i.e. a few from Jacob, a few from John, a few from Frederick, etc., also from the line of Herman, and the other lines we've researched).

What do we have to gain from the Study as a group?

- 1) When a paper trail is unavailable due to poor records, these would serve to establish a line of descent.
- 2) We have a lot of Junghen (Youngkin, Youngken, Younkens, etc) lines that we have always believed were connected but because of the lack of a paper trail were unable to prove. The line of Peter Junghen of Easton, Northampton County is one example that comes to mind. Others would be lines we've found near the other Younkens in the early census records (and the similar naming patterns for children) which are certainly indications of a relationship but DNA tests would be proof.

To give you a VERY SHORT summary of the Y-DNA testing. (Which is a very simple and easy swab of your mouth, not a blood test!). The Y-DNA test is for male descendants of any Junghen surname line. The Y-chromosome (an exact duplicate) is passed from father to son and father to son throughout history. An occasional mutation of a number does occur but it is rare). In short, a male Younkin, etc. that is born today should have an exact 12/25 markers to that of any other descendant of Henrich or (hopefully) Herman. Therefore to participate the subject would need to be a male with the surname Younkin, Youngkin, etc. So ladies your brother, father, uncle may participate but I'm afraid we can't. If you think you might be interested in participating, or might be able to encourage a male relative to, please write or email me and I can give you more information. Your privacy is very important to us and so any participant in the study will be assigned a Subject Number (without their name).

We are also hoping to establish a DONATION fund for these studies- if you like to donate towards the cost of the testing we would welcome it. Each study is around $100 for the 12 marker test and around $200 for the 25 marker test. We do have a few cousins that would be interested in participating but cannot financially afford the costs so that's why we are going to establish the fund.

A Group Trip To Germany?

If there is enough interest from the cousins in making a group trip to Germany I would certainly entertain the idea. If you think you might be interested in a trip to Germany send me an email or write to me and let me know what time of the year would be good and approximately how many in your family would be going. If we have a large enough group interested I will look into group travel rates for airfare and hotel accommodations. Frankenberg has some lovely old, historic hotels!

That reminds me! This was such a gorgeous area but what really struck me the most was that there is no new construction in this area of Germany. All the houses people live in are the same houses their ancestors lived in. Yet they are beautiful and unbelievably well kept homes! Their pride of community was so obvious! There wasn't one speck of dirt or debris on any street or sidewalk. You probably think I am exaggerating but I am not. It was unbelievably beautiful!

What a crazy but incredibly fun year it has been for Larry and I. In the Fall of 2003 we made a decision to sell our house at 10 W. Main Street in Hancock Maryland. It was too large for us to ENJOY managing. So as soon as nice weather set in we started scraping and painting the entire house inside and out. I won't go into all the details but suffice it to say that we finally finished the end of June and put it on the market early July. We had several contracts within the first week. We settled on it in early September. The ultimate purchasers will be turning it into a Bed & Breakfast. Excellent idea - it was made for that! It sits right in front of the C & O Canal and the new Western Maryland Rail Trail. It's just perfect for visitors to Western Maryland!

Then we were on our way! To where we weren't sure... but decided that what we both really wanted to do was travel. So that is exactly what we did and are continuing to do. We purchased a 30ft Fifth Wheel Recreational Vehicle and a 3500 Duramax Diesel Dually truck and our total length on the road is an incredible 50ft! To appreciate this you must understand that neither Larry nor I have camped since we were kids with our parents and grandparents so all of this was completely new to us. We took a lot of advice from others who were experienced. And now that we have been 'on the road' for about 9 months I can say it was the right decision for us - we have had a wonderful time seeing this great country of ours and visiting with friends and family.

Most of this past winter we spent in the southern states - not too much genealogy to do there. But as soon as the weather warmed up we headed to the mid-west and then back east... hunting our ancestors all the way. Our last stop was a visit to Morgan and Perry Counties in Ohio where Rudolph and his descendants settled.

Our new mailing address is PO BOX 252, Walkersville, MD 21793 and our cellular phone number (which we always have with us) is 240-818-1260. Our daughter mails us our critical mail every few weeks. So please stay in touch! And don't be surprised if we show up on your doorstep one of these days as we continue to travel around.

As most of you know to cut back on expenses we now only send reunion notices to cousins who have attended a reunion in the past 3 years or has sent a SASE (self-addressed-stamped-envelope) or a small donation. We will need to give the caterer a final count by July 9th so please don't delay in sending in your reservation for the reunion and a check to cover your meals.

Reservations should be made by calling the Ramada directly at 814-443-4646. IT TAKES A FAMILY TO BUILD A REUNION!

More On Our German Roots

After another year of research I believe we now have a complete family for Johannes and Elisabeth (Wagner) Junghen. They are the parents of our immigrant ancestors Henrich and Herman Junghen of Bucks county, PA. We will be forever grateful to Hans-Wilhelm Junghenn, our distant cousin, of Wolnzach Germany for his tireless help with all of the research that brings us to this exciting point in our family history.

Johannes Junghen and Elisabeth Wagner, daughter of Herman Wagner, were married 23 January 1694 at the Lutheran Church in Nieder-Asphe, Germany.

Their children (from the Nieder-Asphe Lutheran Church records). Note: under the birth/baptism records where you see a "stated relationship" this would be a relationship to the father of the child.

1) Johan Henrich, born 25 March 1696, Godfather was "Henrich Fuhr"

2) Caspar - this child is placed in this birth order because of the dates of various other events such as his confirmation in 1710 and marriage in 1722.

We have not found a record of Casper's baptism in the Nieder-Asphe Lutheran church records. At this time in Germany children were normally baptized on the day (or night) of their birth. It is possible that the mother, Elisabeth (Wagner) Junghen, was visiting with her family in a neighboring village when Casper was born and therefore the baptismal record would be in that city's church records.

3) Johannes, born 13 October 1700, Godfather was "Johannes in den Erlen (Alder)"

4) Elisabeth, born 15 July 1703, Godmother was "Joh. Wagners daughter El."

5) Johan Herman, born 9 September 1706, Godfather was "Joh. Doffts son Herman"

6) Johannes, born 12 June 1709, Godfather was "Johannes Dersch"

7) Johan Herman, born 4 September 1712, Godfather was "his brother in law Herman Wagner"

8) Elisabeth, born 14 July 1715, Godmother was "Joh. in Erlen daughter"

9) Johan Henrich, born 31 January 1717, Godfather was "his brother in law Herman Wagner (beyond the creek)"

The Nieder-Asphe Lutheran Church records also included the following death records for the children of Johannes and Elisabeth (Wagner) Junghen:

Johannes, died 28 February 1708
(probably #1 child, Johan Henrich)
Elisabeth, died 23 November 1715

Lutheran Church Confirmation normally took place in the child's thirteenth year. Nieder-Asphe Lutheran Church Confirmation records for the children of Johannes and Elisabeth (Wagner) Junghen:

1710 - Caspar Junghen
1716 - Elisabeth
1720 - Johann Herman
1720 - Johannes
1726 - Johan Herman
1730 - Johan Henrich (see copy of record in last issue)

Marriage records from Nieder-Asphe Lutheran Church records:

16 April 1727 - Elisabeth, daughter of Johannes Junghen, married Christoph Frey of Undersimtshausen (Simtshausen is a village next to Nieder-Asphe, just a mile or so away.

28 July 1740 - Johannes Junghen married Anna Wagner.

Now back to the above Caspar Junghen. Hans-Wilhelm was able to find out a bit more on his life as he remained in Germany. If we are correct in assuming that the death record above was the first born son Johan Henrich, then that would make Casper the oldest living son. Therefore he would have inherited the family property/farm and would be set to raise his family there. The other younger sons would have to fend for themselves. No doubt a reason to head for the Americas - Land of Opportunity!

On 17 April 1722 Caspar Junghen married Elisabeth Michel.

Their children (from the Nieder-Asphe Lutheran Church records):

1) Johannes, born 30 August 1722, Godfather was his father Johannes Junghen. This child died 6 September 1722.
2) Elisabeth, born 18 June 1727, Godmother was his sister Elisabeth (see marriage below)
3) Johannes, born 25 May 1730, Godfather was his father Johannes Junghen
4) Anna Margarete, born 21 September 1731, Godmother was "H. Derschs daughter"
(Remember the Godfather's stated relationships are to the father of the child)

On Petrusday 1746 Elisabeth, Caspar Junghens daughter, married Joh. Hampel from the neighboring village Amoenau. If we have assumed correctly that Casper inherited the Junghen Farm and given Elisabeth was Casper's oldest daughter, it is probable that she inherited the farm from her father as Hans-Wilhelm's research shows that this farm was named "Hampelhof" (loosely translated means Hampel land) since the time of this marriage.

It is also interesting to note that quite often a "family farm" was simply that - a farm. It was not necessarily where the family lived and slept. They often lived in town but farmed their acreage (family farm) outside of town.

Which introduces us to the next topic ...

Where our family lived in Niederasphe.

You won't find too many family researchers working on a German ancestry that can show you the house where their 1717 ancestor was born! But you can!

Our family home in Niederasphe was Number 55 (and later Hauptstrasse 18, meaning 18 Main Street). In the early days little villages such as Niederasphe had no street names. The houses were simply numbered continuously. The numbers crisscross the village. Later when the streets got names the houses got new numbers. So House Number 55 is the same as Hauptstrasse 18 (or 18 Main Street).

Today Niederasphe is still a small town with around 1,000 residents. The 1939 Census of municipalities of the district Marburg showed 824 inhabitants in Niederasphe, and in the next village over (about a mile away) Simtshausen showed 327 inhabitants in 1939.

Again we are indebted to Hans-Wilhelm for ordering and sending us a number of photographs of our family home in Niederasphe. These photos are part of a historical collection at the Marburg Archives. We are also grateful to Dr. Ulrich Stohr for contacting us regarding his work on the history of Niederasphe and the homes.

The photographs are presented here with the descriptions as they appear at the archival photos. Han-Wilhelm Junghenn provided the translations for them.

Unexpected Treasure!

Back on the first page I explained about our life change and traveling around the country. On our trip back east this Spring we decided to stop in Lincoln Nebraska to see my cousins, brother and sister, Jean Spencer Armstrong and Harold Spencer. Their mother was Winona Younkin Spencer and she was a sister to my great grandfather William Younkin (Aaron Schrock, Jonas, Jacob, Henrich, Johannes). Our visit was quite a surprise for them but they were delighted to see us. We happened on them at just the right time. The University of Nebraska was holding a celebration in honor of Harold. Harold has been a long time supporter of the University of Nebraska with a Scholarship fund in Languages. But this event was in honor of a Professorship in the Department of Languages and Literature that had recently been donated to the University in Harold's name by a long-time friend of his from Chicago.

Once the three days of festivities were over, we had an opportunity to relax a bit and visit. We also spent a day traveling around the family sites including the historic town of Beatrice. During one of our discussions of the family history Jean went to a closet and pulled out an old family album. Inside were many old family portraits including several of Aaron Schrock Younkin's siblings and their families! You will find several of these precious photographs on the opposite page. There was even one of Aaron taken in 1866 when he was only 21!

Over the years other descendants of Dr. Jonas Younkin have sent me unidentified photos from their own family albums and now I have some "identified" ones to compare them to!

DAR - SAR News

We now have quite a few family members who have now joined the DAR & SAR (Daughters/Sons of the American Revolution) on the "Junghen" line. Thanks to the dedication of another DAR member/researcher, Mary Thompson, our newest cousin to join is Darlene (Gingrich) Gottfried. Darlene was accepted into the DAR on February 5, 2005. Her National Number is 833472. Any relative who wants to join using her number can order a copy of her papers and not have to document any generations which connect with her line.

Lineage: Darlene, Goldie (Younkin) Gingrich, Nessley Younkin, Frederick J., Jacob, Jacob, Henrich Junghen
Contact information for Darlene Gingrich Gottfried:
4018 Twilight Dr, Columbus, GA 31909

I would also like to note that Darlene was the winner of one of the 2004 Junghen Reunion quilts. Darlene generously donated the quilt back to the family reunion and it will be up for auction at the 2005 reunion as a fund-raiser. Thanks Darlene!!!!

DNA ... Results are in!!

In the last issue I discussed our new DNA study. Hopefully you took some time and also read more about it on our web site: <http://www.familytrail.com/junghen/dnaresults.html>

So far we have 3 participants. Two from the Henrich Junghen line (one a descendant of Jacob and one a descendant of Rudolph) and one from the Johannes (born bef 1784) and Barbara Wimmer line. This Johannes and Barbara line has always eluded us as a connecting line - we have never been able to find a paper trail back to a father for Johannes. I am just not sure where he fits in! But at least now we know that he is one of ours. The DNA proves it! All 25 markers (Y-DNA Chromosome Alleles) on these three cousins were an exact match. The DNA study now show us that our Haplotype is E3b. (See the web site for more information on E3b)

There are several more lines we would like to have join the study group. We are in need of a male with the Younkin, Youngkin, etc. who is from the Herman Junghen line. Also from the Peter Youngkin line and several others. Please consider joining this worthwhile endeavor!

We are also setting up a fund to help with the costs of these DNA tests. If you can donate a few dollars to help with the expense that would be very much appreciated! The tests costs between $100-$200 a piece. The results benefit all of us...

In looking at web sites that are in German it can help a bit to use the Google Search Engine's translation utilities. Go to www.Google.com and click on the link titled "Language Tools". From there you can either put in a word or phrase and Google will translate from German to English. Or you can have Google translate an entire web page but putting in the appropriate web page address (url). But keep in mind that not all words will translate exactly - the best we can do is get a general idea of what the word or phrase means. You might have some fun doing a search on Google's German Search Engine. Go to: <http://www.google.de>

In the search box put in such words as Junghen, or Junghenn (as most of today's family members spell it) or Niederasphe.
